GOVERNOR DUMMER CELEBRATES 182nd COMMENCEMENT IN ONE-DAY PROGRAM

45 SENIORS RECEIVE DIPLOMAS
DR. RICHARD GUMMERE GIVES
COMMENCEMENT ADDRESS

B. Botsford Young, Jr., Morse Flag Winner, Master's Cup Awarded to Arthur S. Page, Jr.

Governor Dummer's 182nd annual commencement exercises concluded this afternoon with an address by Dr. Richard M. Gummere, Dean of Admissions at Harvard University. Mr. James Duncan Phillips, president of the board of trustees, gave diplomas to forty-five members of the graduating class.

Headmaster Edward W. Eames made the prize awards and announced Arthur Stickney Page, Jr., of Newburyport, as winner of the Master's Prize.

This morning students and guests of the school attended a 'Service of Commemoration' at which prayers were offered for the graduates, teachers and workers of Governor Dummer who have given their lives in the service, as well as for those who have been taken prisoner or are still on active duty. Reverend George L. Cadigan of Grace Church, Salem, and Reverend Wallace W. Anderson of the State Street Congregational Church, Portland, assisted Mr. Eames in conducting the service.

Following the memorial service, the Morse Flag ceremony was held and this highest award of the school year was given to Bennet Botsford Young, Jr., of Lake Forest, Illinois. The Glee Club Concert, an important feature of each year's graduation exercises, took place next with Mr. Arthur W. Sager of the faculty conducting.

Because of wartime shortages of hotel accommodations and food, and wartime restrictions on travel, this year's commencement ceremonies were telescoped so that all the main events of the former two-day celebration might be held in one day.

ATHLETIC LETTERS AND PRIZES AWARDED AT EVENING MEETING

At evening meeting on Thursday, May 31, the Dalton Hamor Prize, for outstanding value on the baseball team, was presented to Keith Almon Johnson of Portland, Maine. Johnson has played catcher on the varsity nine this year. The Track Prize, awarded each year to the outstanding member of the track squad, was won by Shepherd Sikes of White Plains, New York. This prize is made possible through the gift of Mr. Charles I. Somerby of Haverhill. The Lacrosse Trophy was won by Paul Withington of Boston.

At the same meeting George W. McClary of La Salle, Illinois received the Bausch and Lomb Science Medal.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Hedwig Frank of Saranac Lake, New York, editor of the Archon and winner of the Richard Hawes Francis Scholarship, the Moody Kent Prize in History, the Washington and Franklin Medal, and second Ambrose Prize for public speaking.

MR. DOWNEY ADDRESSES SCHOOL

On Thursday, May 3, Mr. Walter H. Downey, principal of the Boston English High School and Commissioner of Education under Governor Saltonstall, spoke to the students about the late president Franklin D. Roosevelt. Mr. Downey emphasized Mr. Roosevelt's immense personal courage, his determination to surmount personal handicaps, and his great qualities as a leader of men. The moral integrity of our late president was often questioned by political opponents and sometimes by sympathizers. Perspective gained by passing years will prove Roosevelt's essential integrity, the speaker said.

NEW BOOKS PURCHASED FOR NOYES LIBRARY COLLECTION

Mr. Ohrn, school librarian, announced recently the addition of about fifty books to the Noyes Library collection. Among the new titles are the following: George Bernard Shaw's Everybody's Political What's What, Ralph Barton Perry's Puritanism and Democracy, Lord Halifax's Ghost Book, Robert Graves' Wife to Mr. Milton, Andre Maurois' Miracle of America, M. M. Samuels' Power Unleashed, Alex Laing's Clipper Ship Men, Robert Goffin's The White Brigade, James Connolly's Sea-Borne and Bruce Lancaster's Trumpet to Arms.

BYFIELD PARISH DEDICATES FOURTH MEETING HOUSE

On Sunday, May 19, Byfield Parish dedicated its fourth meeting house with a special service. Dr. Everett C. Herrick, president of the Andover-Newton Theological Seminary, addressed the congregation in the course of the ceremonies. Mr. Eames served on the program committee for the dedication, and students of the Academy attended the service. Miss Helen McGregor Noyes, formerly a teacher at Simmons College and now living near the school, wrote a 'Dedication Hymn' for the occasion, and this hymn is reprinted below with the special permission of the author.

A DEDICATION HYMN, for Byfield

The labor of our love, O Lord,
We bring to Thee today,
With hearts in thankfulness outpoured,—
Receive it now, we pray;
The patient laying stone on stone,
The beauty of design,—
In these we give Thee back Thine own,
As we ourselves are Thine.

Build Thou in us the steady hand,
The steady eye and true,
The generous mind to understand
And will to carry through.
From Thee our every power derives,
O Source of all our joy,
And now we dedicate our lives
Wholly to Thine employ.

Into Thy hands without reserve
We give each mortal power;
Teach us Thy purposes to serve
Responsive from this hour.
Serenely with Thy spirit filled
We joyous faith attain,
That if the Lord the structure build
No labor can be vain.

Move mightily the hearts of men
Until Thy will be done
In spirit and in truth,—and then
Oh, build us into one,
Wide as the reaches of Thy mind,—
One, whom Thy love controls:
Thy living Church of all mankind,
Great Architect of Souls!

NINE SPECIAL PRIZE AWARDS
ANNOUNCED BY HEADMASTER

Each year, through the generosity of Mr. Milton Dodge of Newburyport, the school is able to award a few Special Prizes to boys who have qualified for no established prize, yet whose personal qualities or unusual contribution to school life merits recognition. During the Commencement Exercises today, the Headmaster awarded these prizes with the following citations:

"To Joseph Lennox Hannan of Marblehead, a boy of poise and maturity, who has won the admiration and respect of the other boys and who, in the course of four years, has proved to his headmaster that a good trap drummer can also be the finest sort of school citizen.

"To Frank Howard Hinckley, Jr. of Barnstable, whose Yankee forthrightness and muscular vigor make us better understand the heroes of Cape Cod; a hard-working, determined boy, whom we all like and admire.

"To Irvine Freese Williamson of Allston. A fine scholar and a finer boy. Irv combines a serious attitude toward studies with a buoyant attitude toward life in general.

"To William Winsor Palmer of Bradford, who has been faithful in his studies, but outstanding in the school work program. Bill has helped promulgate two of the Four Freedoms—Freedom from Want, by carrying food to the infirmary; and Freedom of Speech, by mimeographing the Headmaster's letters.

"To Paul Withington of Brookline. Able student and verstaile athlete, captain of one of our best hockey teams, Paul will be remembered as one of the leading members of his class.

GOVERNOR DUMMER CUM LAUDE
GROUP INDUCTS TEN SENIORS

Governor Dummer's Chapter of the Cum Laude Society held its annual dinner and meeting in the Phillips Building on Friday evening, May 18. Ten members of the 1945 graduating class were initiated. Cum Laude is a national society corresponding to Phi Beta Kappa in colleges, and membership is determined by high scholastic standing.

The service of induction was led by Mr. Eames, president of the Academy's chapter, and Mr. James Duncan Phillips, president of the board of trustees, delivered the charge and presented certificates to the following boys: Richard A. Cousins of Newburyport; Alvin Firth of North Andover; Warren W. Furth of Saranac Lake, New York; John S. Gillies of Fairlawn, New Jersey; Brewster Jameson of Buffalo, New York; George W. McClary of La Salle, Illinois; Donald G. Palais of Brookline; Robert S. Steinert, Jr., of Boston; Ralph A. Webb, Jr., of Newburyport, and Irvine F. Williamson of Allston.

After the initiation ceremony, Mr. David McCord, poet, anthologist, and editor of the Harvard Alumni Bulletin, spoke to the entire school and guests on the subject of poetry. Mr. McCord pointed out that poetry is not necessarily tinged with the 'aura of oblivion'. Many great men, including military leaders, find in rhyme and meter a great sustaining force in times of crisis. Mr. McCord read some of his own poetry, including a poem written for a Boston paper on the observance of V-E Day. He also read from an anthology of humorous verse which he is editing now and which will soon appear under the name 'What Cheer'.

"To Dana Robineau Kelley of White Plains, New York. The champion fisherman of the senior class, Dana deserves special recognition because his friendly disposition and winning smile are balanced by sound scholarship and solid character.

"To Bradley House Roberts of Wellesley Hills. President of the Glee Club, well-liked, hard-working, steady, reliable, Brad deserves a prize for his improvement as a scholar and his qualities of leadership."

Vespers

May 6: Dr. Alfred E. Stearns, Headmaster Emeritus of Phillips Academy, Andover.

May 13: Dr. Carl H. Elmore of The First Presbyterian Church of Englewood, New Jersey.

May 20: Dr. Everett C. Herrick, President of the Andover-Newton Theological Seminary.

May 27: The Reverend Richard J. Schaper of the Byfield Parish Church.

Dr. Stearns pointed out the difference between duty and expediency. To do our duty is to obey God's word as spoken through our conscience. To choose expediency is to take the easy path without regard to moral principles. Duty leads to the goal, expediency, to ruin. The choice is one which must be made early in life.

* * *

Dr. Elmore said that the kind of life we lead will determine the shape of the new world which will arise after this war. A better world depends on our faith in the essential goodness of man. We must have an up-to-date loyalty not only to family, community, and country, but to mankind. Most important of all, we must choose the leadership of Christ. Two thousand years ago Christ taught a way of life which can be our salvation.

* * *

Dr. Herrick spoke of Ted Hume, a Congregational missionary who was killed in a plane crash while carrying out a mission for the church in Europe. Hume's life was a source of inspiration to all who knew him and his good works set an example that we may well follow. To the very end he pursued the work to which duty called him. He died a 'clean unmerited death'.

* * *

Mr. Schaper read passages from 'A Wastebasket Philosophy' written by an English soldier during the First World War. The soldier wrote notes to his small son, never mailed them, and eventually threw them into a wastebasket in despair. They were retrieved by a friend and published. The author urged his son to set high goals for himself, to cherish friends, and to be sincere in his relationship with God.

LISPENARD B. PHISTER
Speaker at V-E Day Service

SERVICE OF THANKSGIVING HELD AT SCHOOL ON EVENING OF V-E DAY

A free day was declared on Tuesday, May 8, after President Truman's announcement that war in Europe had ended.

Instead of evening meeting a special service was held in the Cobb Room of the Phillips Building. Reverend Richard J. Schaper, pastor of the Byfield Parish Church offered the opening prayer. Mr. Lispernard B. Phister, a lieutenant in the Air Force during the first world war, now a Major in the State Guard and a trustee of the Academy, then addressed the students and faculty of the school. Mr. Phister said that many Boston store-owners had boarded up their windows that morning to protect them from victory-thrilled crowds. He emphasized that we cannot afford to feel confident and celebrate until total victory is won. He read a letter from a friend of his in Europe who is now serving with the AMG and pointed out the enormity of the task of reconstruction which must be accomplished there.

At the close of the service Reverend Glenn Tilley Morse, also a member of the board of trustees, offered another prayer of thanks and gave the benediction.

EDITORIAL

News of the surrender of the Germans in Europe has filled the hearts of freedom-loving people everywhere with new courage and hope. The fight against the Axis is moving toward an end.

Ever since the Nazi party had its beginnings in 1933 it has been doomed to failure. No one nation led by a fanatical leader can continue to conquer forever. Sooner or later the forces of right and justice must rise to crush a power dedicated to the destruction of human rights. It happened to Hitler. He, like Napoleon and Hannibal, dreamed of world conquest and because of the temporary indifference and unpreparedness of his opponents, almost attained his goal. His fall was inevitable, however, and the Japanese militarists are destined to learn the same bitter lesson.

We cannot allow this stirring victory in Europe to swell us with over-confidence. As Mr. Phister pointed out in his V-E day speech to the school, there will be an enormous job for us to do even after the Japanese have been whipped. Meanwhile, we must work patiently and earnestly until the day of complete victory is at hand. To speed that day we must contribute as much on the home front as our gallant troops are contributing on the battlefronts of the world. And we must pray to Almighty God that just and lasting peace may come to all the nations of the world. G.E.D. II.

MILESTONE DANCE ACCLAIMED AMONG BEST IN SEVERAL YEARS

The annual Milestone Dance held in the Cobb Room of the Phillips Building on May 5, turned out to be one of the most successful in recent years. The large room was well-filled with seventy-eight couples dancing, the largest number ever to attend this annual event. Sixty-five boarding school students invited girls from various parts of the country, and thirteen day students attended with their dates.

Bad weather threatened Saturday morning, but by noon the sun shone through and good conditions prevailed for the two athletic competitions which provided the afternoon's entertainment. The Governor's baseball team was defeated 13-5 by the Belmont Hill visitors, but the track team came through with a 58-28 win over Deering High School.

After the games the boys escorted their dates on sight-seeing trips around the campus and then all assembled in the dining room for a delicious dinner. The Dance began about seven-thirty, and continued until midnight. Ken Reeves and his orchestra provided excellent and varied musical fare for the dancing.

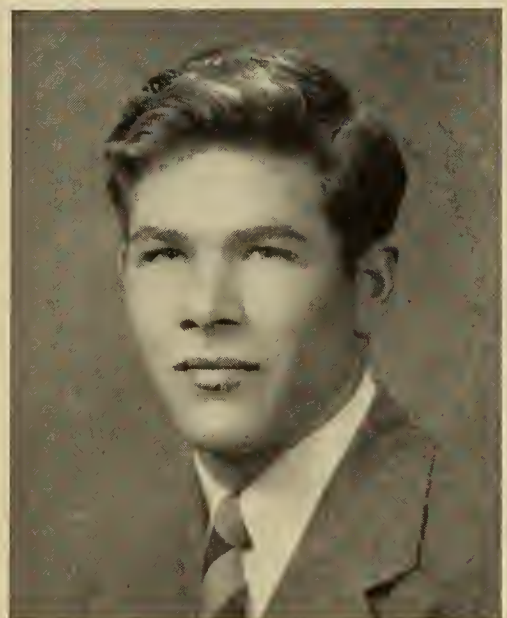

The Milestone Dance Committee under the chairmanship of Tony Hannan did a fine job in arranging for the dance. Special thanks are due Mrs. Eames for her great help in making the affair a success.

CAPTAIN STOTT OF MARINES SPEAKS AT EVENING MEETING

On Wednesday, May 16, Captain Frederic A. Stott, former Governor Dummer faculty member, returned to the Academy to speak to the students and faculty at evening meeting. Captain Stott was wounded on Iwo Jima after serving with the marines on Saipan, Kwajalein, Namur, and Eniwetok. He has received the Purple Heart and, for distinguished service in the Saipan campaign, has been awarded the Navy Cross.

Captain Stott discussed the problem of fear as it affects the soldier going into battle. Almost everyone is tense and excited, he said, while waiting for the battle to start. Once the action begins the average soldier is fascinated by the developing fight and forgets to be afraid. Moments of extreme fright do occur, most often at night. But the number of cases of uncontrollable fear in combat is negligible.

Captain Stott spoke also of the difference between G.I. Joe and his Japanese equivalent in rank. The Japs, he said, have not reached our stage of civilization, and because of their rigid caste system of society obey orders blindly without regard to the great principles involved. The rigidity of their social structure is reflected also in their inflexibility in situations requiring quick changes of thought or action.

The Governors' baseball team won their third straight game and their fourth of the season by defeating Danvers High 10-4 on Morse Field, May 23. The game started at the close of classes and because of the late start only seven innings were played. George Brown pitched a beautiful game, fanning six Danvers' batters. Tom Magoun pitched the final frame and also turned in a good performance. Keith Johnson and George Duffy led the batting attack with two hits apiece.

WORCESTER ACADEMY UPSET TO TUNE OF 13-5 BY LACROSSE TEAM

The Red and White lacrosse team continued its winning streak by defeating Worcester Academy 13-5 on May 18. The home team started off with a vengeance scoring five goals in the first eight minutes of play. The Worcester team fought hard all the way but were unable to offset a decisive victory for the Governors. Withington led the attack with 4 goals to his personal credit. Stuart and 'Scoop' Sutton each scored two goals, and single tallies went to McCusker and Dennett.

LET'S LOOK AT THE RECORD

In all the years we have been in business, we have probably completely outfitted more boys at more of the best-known schools and more undergraduates in the ranking Eastern colleges . . . than any other store you can think of. We know what's what at school . . . and so do the boys who come here.
